

The Michiana Jewish Film Festival brings Jewish-themed cinema to the Michiana area, introducing superb, sometimes cutting-edge and sometimes classic film to the entire population of South Bend and its surrounding areas. Partnering with the University of Notre Dame, we join the ecumenical inquiry into the nature of religion, identity, culture, and meaning in the modern world. Film provides a window into worlds not otherwise accessible, and is an art form that is less readily available in Michiana than in other, larger settings. Thus the Michiana Jewish Film Festival connects Michiana residents to a broad world and to masters of contemporary film artistry.

Listed below is a complete list of films shown at the DeBartolo Performing Arts Center as part of the Michiana Jewish Film Festival. If you have any questions regarding these or future films, please contact the Jewish Federation at 574-233-1164. Or visit our website at thejewishfed.org.
